

IT IS UNDUE INFLUENCE.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—In glancing over the Hawaiian Gazette of Dec. 3, I noticed the new Election Laws, Sections 86 to 96, relate to the corrupt practices in elections and prescribe severe penalties. When, at a certain meeting to nominate candidates for the coming election, it was found out that I had voted for a certain party which was quite opposite to my employers, I was called to account for it, and was asked why I had done so? I told them that I thought I had a right to vote for whichever candidate I thought fit. But I was given to understand that I ought to have voted for the same candidate as the planters wanted. If this is not corruption I don't know the meaning of the word. I think there might be a great deal said on this subject, if a large number of the employees would open their mouths and give utterance to their thoughts. FAIR PLAY.
